

MS Track[®] Pro Reporter

MS Track Pro Reporter provides Managers with the information they need to improve decision-making and control.

MS Track Pro Reporter has been designed to allow you to generate tabular based reports which can then be printed or exported to other formats for further analysis.

Some of the Benefits from using MS Track Pro Reporter include the ability to

- Automatically generate accurate time-on-site reports
- Increase the number of jobs per day
- Produce weekly time sheets automatically for each driver
- Reduce time spent on administering vehicle maintenance
- Automate records for tax, expense claims and business mileage

MS Track Pro Reporter can also enable you to achieve significant cost savings for labour, fuel usage and insurance by giving you the ability to achieve the following.

Maximising Driver Time by analysing the duration of travel routes - better utilisation of assets, knowing the best time of day to schedule a route and understanding the exact number of vehicles required for each day's manifests.

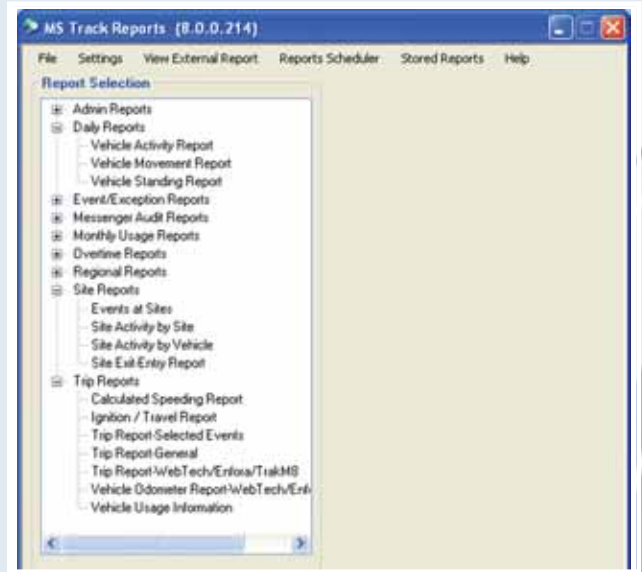

Performance through monitoring vehicle routes from start to finish and comparing these against company pre-determined plans.

Efficiency by reducing the amount of time spent on manual paperwork entry.

Cost Savings by reducing fuel bills and improving invoicing

Above all, having this information available and being able to demonstrate this to your Customers can only improve the level of Service you provide.

Reports Scheduling

By using the simple wizard steps a user is able to save their report criteria as a "Stored Report". By doing this the user no longer is required to re-select the report criteria and can either simple run the stored report or schedule the report to be automatically emailed.

MS Track Pro Report uses the powerful Microsoft Scheduler function available in most Microsoft Operating Systems to automatically email user defined reports to as many as 5 different users including user distribution groups.
